

Ann Louise Musgrave

has been drawing and painting ever since she was a small child in Warren NSW where she was born. After moving to Dubbo NSW where she married and raised her family, she continued with her art and attended classes at TAFE. She then moved to Wollongong with her family where she completed her art studies and now resides.

Ann Louise's approach to art has been described as exploratory and experimental. She is a seeker and a romantic and is always searching for that extra level of meaning in her work. She often pushes herself beyond her comfort zone by using alternative approaches, materials and media. Her work has now evolved to be mostly mixed media, a fusion of painting, drawing and collage. Women, nature and the world around her are recurring themes.

Ann Louise's work is held in many private and corporate collections around the country. She has a Diploma in Fine Arts, ran her own children's art classes (eKIDna Art) for a number of years and has participated in many combined and solo exhibitions.
