resident artist

ANITA MULROONEY studio 15

Anita Mulrooney has been creating abstract acrylic fluid art since 2017. She is self-taught and loves experimenting with an explosion of rich, vibrant colours on glass, mirror, aluminium, wood and canvas. Anita's eclectic pieces become the 'hero' of any room.

She created the fun brand 'art-a-crack!' when she branched out into greeting cards, homewares and stainless steel jewellery, featuring her one-off wearable mini-artworks.

Anita believes everyone can create art and concentrates on the fun, colour and joy art can bring, along with making her own art accessible to all. Her smallest pieces are 10mm glass paintings featured in her jewellery range, all the way through to 1200mm paintings.

Anita also runs fluid art workshops at Red Point Arts, where she works in her studio Thursdays through Saturdays.
